Validity Period

- The validity period of the Quotation is 90 days from the closing date.

- The Presidency may extend the validity period should the process not be completed within 90 days, and bidders will be consulted to extend the validity. Please note that non-response from the bidder will be regarded as consent to the extension of the validity period, and The Presidency will proceed with evaluating the proposal submitted by the closing date.

Condition on "equivalent" branding:

- If a specification includes a brand name or "equivalent", the bidder must explicitly state the alternative brand name if they choose to supply an equivalent product. If no alternative brand is specified in the bid, the bidder must supply the originally specified brand. The Presidency will not consider non-specified equivalent products.

- The Presidency reserves the right to accept or reject an equivalent brand based on quality. If a proposed alternative brand is rejected for failing to meet quality standards, the bidder will be given an opportunity to supply the originally specified brand; failing which, the bid will be disqualified.
