60X Wireless Microphones

The Bosch DICENTIS Wireless Conference System is a true-wireless discussion and conferencing platform built on standard Wi-Fi and smart wireless management.

Key Technical Specifications

Wireless Connectivity & Frequency: Standard Wi-Fi (2.4 GHz and 5 GHz auto-switching), scanning and dynamically switching across channels to prevent interference. access.

Security & Encryption: Government-grade 128-bit / WPA2 wireless encryption and TLS-SSL protection against eavesdropping and unauthorized access.

Device Capacities: Supports up to 120 wireless discussion devices per Wireless Access Point (WAP), or up to 240 seats when configured for dual-use functionality.

Configurable via web browser interface as a single-use participant, dual-use, or chairperson device. Display & Identification: DCNM-WDE (Wireless Extended Device): Features a 4.3-inch capacitive touch screen with support for custom personalized logos.

Built-in NFC Reader: Fast contactless identification of participants via smart cards.