COMPULSORY BRIEFING SESSION

Attendance at the compulsory briefing session is a mandatory requirement of this procurement process. Prospective bidders must ensure that an authorised representative attends the briefing session, either in person or virtually, as detailed below. The purpose of the briefing session is to provide bidders with an opportunity to obtain clarification on the requirements of these Terms of Reference and the procurement process.

A compulsory briefing session will be held as follows:

- Date: 23 November 2026
- Time: 10:00 AM

Attendance may be through one of the following methods:

- In person: Western Cape Liquor Authority (WCLA), 3rd Floor, Sunbel Building, 3 Old Paarl Road, Bellville, 7530; or
- Virtually: Via Microsoft Teams using the details below.

Microsoft Teams Meeting

- https://teams.microsoft.com/meet/3423658234715739?p=Zeso15l8fi7FQtctqR
- Meeting ID: 342 365 823 471 573 9
- Passcode: TK9qF7sr

Bidders attending virtually must join the meeting using the details provided above and remain connected for the duration of the briefing session. Attendance will be recorded and verified by the Authority for both in-person and virtual participants.

Bidders attending virtually are solely responsible for ensuring that they have adequate internet connectivity and suitable equipment to participate in the briefing session. Any technical difficulties or connectivity failures experienced by a bidder will not invalidate the briefing session or constitute grounds for non-compliance with this mandatory requirement. Failure by a bidder to attend the compulsory briefing session and to have its attendance recorded and verified by the Authority, through either of the prescribed attendance methods, will result in the bid being declared non-responsive and excluded from further evaluation.

WCLA_T003_2026_27 APPOINTMENT OF A TRAVEL MANAGEMENT COMPANY TO PROVIDE TRAVEL MANAGEMENT SERVICES TO THE WESTERN CAPE LIQUOR AUTHORITY (“WCLA” OR” AUTHORITY”) FOR PERIOD OF THIRTY-SIX (36) MONTHS

SECTION A: BACKGROUND

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. The Western Cape Liquor Authority ("WCLA" or "the Authority") is a Schedule 3C public entity established in terms of the Western Cape Liquor Act, 4 of 2008 (as amended), which came into operation on 1 April 2012. The Authority is mandated to regulate the retail sale and micro-manufacturing of liquor within the Western Cape Province. WCLA operates under the executive authority of the Western Cape Department of Police Oversight and Community Safety (POCS) of the Western Cape Government (WCG).

1.2. The mission of the Western Cape Liquor Authority is as follows:

- To regulate the retail sale and micro-manufacturing of liquor in the Western Cape in a transparent, fair and consistent manner
- To facilitate and promote the determination of public interest in all liquor regulatory processes.
- To foster an appreciation for the need to effectively regulate liquor as a psychoactive and toxic substance with dependence producing properties.
- Present as an employer of choice that attracts, develops, grows and retains talent to enhance regulatory impact.

1.3. The travel management services procured through this tender will be utilised by WCLA employees, Board members where applicable, executive management, officials, contractors, consultants and other persons authorised by the Authority to travel on official business. The primary objective of this procurement is to appoint a suitably qualified Travel Management Company (TMC) capable of providing efficient, cost-effective, reliable and compliant travel management services, including but not limited to air travel, accommodation, vehicle hire, shuttle services, conferencing and catering arrangements where travel-related, and other associated travel services required by the Authority. The appointed bidder will be expected to support the Authority's operational requirements while ensuring compliance with applicable legislation, Treasury prescripts and the National Travel Framework.

2. PURPOSE

2.1. The Western Cape Liquor Authority (WCLA), currently situated on the 3rd and 5th Floors of the Sunbel Building, 3 Old Paarl Road, Bellville, Cape Town, 7530, hereby invites suitably qualified and experienced bidders to submit proposals for the provision of comprehensive travel management services. The appointed Travel Management Company shall provide professional, efficient, reliable and cost-effective travel management services for WCLA employees, executive management, Board members, contractors, consultants, and other authorised travellers undertaking official business on behalf of the Authority. The required services include, but are not limited to, those listed in Section 4.1.1 of this Terms of Reference and shall be provided in accordance with applicable legislation.

2.2. The objective of this procurement is to appoint a single service provider for a period of thirty-six (36) months, subject to contract performance, budget availability and the terms and conditions contained in this Tender document.

3. DEFINITIONS

3.1. Accommodation means the rental of lodging facilities while away from one's place of abode, but on official business.

3.2. After-hours service refers to an enquiry or travel request that is actioned after normal WCLA working hours, namely from 17h01 to 07h59 the following day, Monday to Friday, and 24 hours a day on weekends and public holidays.

3.3. Agreement shall mean the written agreement entered between the WCLA and service provider, as recorded in the contract form signed by the parties, including all attachments and appendices thereto and all documents incorporated by reference therein.

3.4. Air travel means travel by airline on authorized official business.

3.5. Approver means the employee who has been delegated to authorize travel in respect of travel requests and expenses, e.g., line manager of the traveller.

3.6. Service provider / Bidder means an individual or entity that provides services to another party and is interchangeably used with TMC and/or respondent and/or tenderer.

3.7. Car Rental means the rental of a vehicle for a short period of time by a Traveler for official business.

3.8. Domestic travel means travel within the borders of the Republic of South Africa.

3.9. International travel refers to travel outside the borders of the Republic of South Africa.

3.10. Emergency service means the booking of travel when unforeseen circumstances necessitate an unplanned trip or a diversion from original planned trip.

3.11. Management Fee is the fixed negotiated fee payable to the service provider in monthly instalments for the delivery of travel management services, excluding any indirect costs not included in the management fee structure (visa, refund, frequent flyer tickets).

3.12. Official business means travel, and related costs associated with performing the WCLA's functions in terms of their mandate and strategic, operational and performance plans.

3.13. Purchase Order is the official document utilized by WCLA to obtain & confirm authorization of an official trip. This form confirms the particulars of the trip, including start & end dates, accommodation dates, method of travel, etc.

3.14. Service Level Agreement (SLA) is the agreement reached between the TMC and WCLA which quantifies the minimum quality of service to meet WCLA's needs. Such service quality expectations are defined in measurable terms and accompanied by Key Performance Indicators and Reporting requirements to ensure that performance can be continuously assessed.

3.15. Transfers/Shuttle Service means the service offered to transfer a Traveler from one point to another, for example from place of work/home to the airport.

3.16. Third party fees are fees payable to third party service providers that provides travel-related services on an ad hoc basis that is not directly provided by the bidder. These fees include visa fees and forex fees.

3.17. Traveler refers to an employee, consultant or contractor that has been duly authorized to travel on official business on behalf of WCLA.

3.18. Travel Booker is the person coordinating travel reservations with the bidder on behalf of the Traveler.

14. SECTION B: RIGHTS RESERVED BY THE WESTERN CAPE LIQUOR AUTHORITY:

Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Request for Proposal (RFP), the Western Cape Liquor Authority ("WCLA" or "the Authority") reserves the right, subject to the applicable legislation, procurement prescripts to:

a) Accept or reject any bid, including that of the highest-scoring bidder on price and Specific Goals, where objective criteria or any other lawful and justifiable grounds support such decision.

b) Incur no liability for any costs, expenses, losses, damages or claims incurred by bidders arising from their participation in this RFP process, including where the RFP is cancelled, withdrawn, suspended, amended or not awarded.

c) Regard an award as having been made only upon the execution of the formal Contract Form (WCBD 7.1), duly signed and accepted by both the Western Cape Liquor Authority and the successful bidder. Following the execution of the Contract Form, the Authority may issue a Letter of Appointment and/or Purchase Order, or any other written instrument, to facilitate the commencement and administration of the contract. No recommendation, verbal communication, correspondence or notification issued prior to the execution of the Contract Form (WCBD 7.1) shall constitute an award or create any contractual rights or obligations.

d) Award this RFP in whole or in part, to one or more successful bidders, or not make any award, depending on operational requirements, budget availability and the outcome of the evaluation process.

e) Cancel, withdraw, suspend, amend or re-advertise this RFP at any stage of the procurement process where circumstances justify such action, including where prices exceed the available budget, funding is withdrawn, specifications require amendment, or the goods or services are no longer required.

f) Invite bidders to presentations, interviews, demonstrations, clarification sessions, reference checks, due diligence assessments, site inspections or any other process reasonably required to evaluate bids at any stage of the procurement process.

g) Negotiate pricing, contractual terms, delivery arrangements, or other conditions with the preferred bidder, provided that such negotiations do not materially alter the original scope of work or compromise the principles of fairness, transparency, competitiveness, and cost-effectiveness.

h) Verify any information, documentation, declarations, qualifications, certifications, references or representations submitted by a bidder and contact any person, institution, client or organisation for verification purposes.

i) Reject any bid where false, misleading or fraudulent information has been submitted, where the bidder fails a due diligence assessment, is prohibited or restricted from contracting with an organ of state, has an actual or potential conflict of interest that cannot be appropriately managed, or where objective evidence indicates that awarding the contract would expose the Authority to material legal, financial, operational or reputational risk.

j) Correct any clerical, administrative, computational, typographical, or procedural errors identified in the RFP documentation or during any stage of the procurement process, provided that such corrections do not materially prejudice any bidder.

k) Request additional information, clarification, documentary proof, or supporting evidence in respect of any aspect of a bidder's submission.

l) Conduct inspections of a bidder's business premises, facilities, systems, resources, personnel, operational capacity or any other aspect relevant to the bidder's ability to successfully perform the contract where deemed necessary.

m) Request audited annual financial statements, management accounts, bank confirmations or any other information reasonably required to assess a bidder's financial standing and capacity to perform the contract.

n) Request samples, demonstrations, prototypes, proof of concept, trial access or any other verification reasonably required to assess goods, services, software, equipment or solutions offered by a bidder.

o) Decline to award a contract where the proposed goods, services, software, equipment or solutions are incompatible with the Authority's existing systems, infrastructure, operational requirements, security standards or would result in disproportionate migration, integration, maintenance, licensing or replacement costs.

p) Increase or decrease the estimated quantities, volumes or service requirements specified in this RFP, where such adjustments remain within the original scope of the contract, are supported by operational requirements and available budget, and comply with all applicable procurement legislation and prescripts.

q) Utilise the rates, prices or unit costs submitted by the successful bidder for additional quantities or requirements falling within the original scope of this RFP, subject to delegated authority, budget availability, approved price adjustments where applicable, and compliance with all applicable procurement legislation and prescripts.

15. CONTRACT FORMATION AND GOVERNING DOCUMENTS

A legally binding contractual relationship shall arise only upon the Western Cape Liquor Authority's ("WCLA") acceptance of the successful bidder's bid through the execution of the WCBD 7.1 Contract Form by both parties and, where applicable, the issuance of a Letter of Appointment, Purchase Order, and/or the execution of a Service Level Agreement (SLA)/Special Conditions of Contract (SCC), or any other written agreement authorised by the WCLA.

The WCBD 7.1 Contract Form shall constitute the primary contract of acceptance and shall be read together with the documents listed below. Where applicable, the SLA, SCC or other written agreement shall supplement the contractual relationship.

Pending the execution of an SLA, SCC or other written agreement, the contractual relationship shall be governed by the following documents:

This Terms of Reference (ToR) / Request for Proposal (RFP);

- WCBD 7.1 Contract Form
- The General Conditions of Contract (GCC) issued in terms of Treasury Regulation 16A under the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999) (PFMA);
- The Purchase Order and/or Letter of Appointment;
- The successful bidder's proposal and pricing schedule;

The ToR and GCC provisions are incorporated into and form part of the Contract. In the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the ToR and the GCC, the provisions of this ToR shall prevail. Where applicable, any SLA/SCC, or other specific contractual agreement concluded between WCLA and the appointed service provider shall supplement the ToR and GCC and, in the event of any inconsistency or conflict, the provisions of the SLA/SCC, or other specific contractual agreement shall prevail to the extent of such inconsistency or conflict.

For the avoidance of doubt, the order of precedence shall be:

- Service Level Agreement (SLA) / Special Condition of Contract (SCC)
- WCBD 7.1 Contract Form
- This Terms of Reference (ToR) / Request for Proposal (RFP);
- The Purchase Order and/or Letter of Appointment;

- The General Conditions of Contract (GCC) issued in terms of Treasury Regulation 16A under the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999) (PFMA);
- The successful bidder's proposal and pricing schedule;

By submitting a proposal, bidders acknowledge and agree that WCLA shall not be liable for payment for any services rendered outside the approved scope of work unless such services have been authorised in writing and a valid Purchase Order has been issued by a duly authorised SCM official or through the official SCM email address designated by WCLA, and such services have been procured in accordance with all applicable procurement legislation, regulations, and prescripts.

16. EVALUATION CRITERION:

Bid proposals will be evaluated in a maximum of four (4) phases, as applicable to this Request for Proposal (RFP). The applicable evaluation phases and requirements will be clearly set out in the Specification/Terms of Reference.

PHASE 1: ADMINISTRATIVE COMPLIANCE AND RESPONSIVENESS

All bids received will first be evaluated to determine their administrative compliance and responsiveness to the requirements of this RFP. This phase includes, but is not limited to, the verification of the submission of all mandatory returnable documents, completed and signed prescribed forms and standard bidding documents, and compliance with the conditions of the bid.

Where a bidder fails to comply with a mandatory administrative requirements, mandatory returnable documents and prescribed mandatory bidding documents, the Authority will deem the bidder to have submitted a non-responsive bid. The WCLA reserves the right to declare the bid non-responsive and exclude it from further evaluation, subject to the applicable legislative and regulatory procurement framework.

PHASE 2: MANDATORY REQUIREMENTS (WHERE APPLICABLE)

Where mandatory requirements have been prescribed in the Specification/Terms of Reference, bidders will be evaluated against those requirements.

Mandatory requirements constitute qualification criteria. A bidder that fails to satisfy any mandatory requirement maybe regarded as non-compliant and might not proceed to the subsequent phases of the evaluation process.

PHASE 3: FUNCTIONALITY EVALUATION (WHERE APPLICABLE)

Where functionality forms part of the evaluation process, bids will be evaluated against the functionality criteria, weightings and minimum qualifying threshold stipulated in the Specification/Terms of Reference.

Only bidders that achieve the prescribed minimum functionality score will qualify to proceed to the Price and Specific Goals evaluation.

PHASE 4: PRICE AND SPECIFIC GOALS EVALUATION

Only bidders that have successfully complied with all applicable preceding evaluation phases will proceed to the Price and Specific Goals evaluation.

This Request for Proposal (RFP) is estimated to have a contract value equal to or below R50 million (inclusive of VAT). Accordingly, bids will be evaluated in terms of the 80/20 preference point system, as prescribed by the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act, 2000 (Act No. 5 of 2000) and the Preferential Procurement Regulations, 2022.

17. ALLOCATION OF POINTS:

The maximum points for this bid are allocated as follows;

EVALUATION CRITERION	MAXIMUM POINTS
PRICE	80
SPECIFIC GOALS BASED ON B-BBEE STATUS LEVEL OF CONTRIBUTION	20
TOTAL POINTS FOR PRICE AND SPECIFIC GOALS MUST NOT EXCEED	100

17.1 ALLOCATION OF SPECIFIC GOALS

In accordance with the Authority's Preferential Procurement Policy, the 20 preference points allocated for Specific Goals shall be awarded based on the bidder's B-BBEE Status Level of Contribution, as follows:

BBBEE Status Level Contributor	Number of Points for 80/20 system
1	20
2	18
3	14
4	12
6	6
7	4
8	2
Non-compliant contributor	0

CALCULATION OF PRICE AND SPECIFIC GOALS : The following formula will be used to calculate the points for price:

Ps = Points scored for price of bid/quotation under consideration

Pt = Price of quotation/business proposal under consideration

Pmin = Price of lowest acceptable quotation/business proposal/tender

PROOF REQUIRED TO CLAIM PREFERENCE POINTS

Bidders wishing to claim points for Specific Goals must have a valid and duly completed WCBD 6.1 (Preference Points Claim Form) at the bid closing date and time. The WCBD 6.1 must either be submitted with the bid or already be lodged on the Western Cape Supplier Evidence Bank (WCSEB) and be valid as at the bid closing date and time.

The Authority reserves the right to utilise the bidder's valid WCBD 6.1, WCBD4.1, B-BBEE Status Level Verification Certificate or sworn affidavit, and any other relevant supporting documentation available on the WCSEB for the purposes of evaluating preference points.

Where a bidder elects to rely on documentation available on the WCSEB, the bidder must provide written confirmation with its bid submission that the WCBD 6.1, B-BBEE Status Level Verification Certificate or sworn affidavit, and any other relevant supporting documentation maintained on the WCSEB are true, complete, accurate, current and applicable to this procurement process. Where any document maintained on the WCSEB is no longer valid or applicable, the bidder must submit the updated documentation together with its bid.

Bidders that are not registered on the WCSEB must submit a completed and signed WCBD 6.1 together with valid B-BBEE supporting documentation as part of their bid submission.

Failure to submit valid proof of a B-BBEE Status Level of Contribution shall not result in disqualification; however, the bidder will score zero (0) points for Specific Goals.

17.2 CALCULATION OF TOTAL POINTS

The points awarded for Price and Specific Goals shall be added together to determine the bidder's total score out of one hundred (100) points. All points shall be rounded to two (2) decimal places.

17.3 AWARD OF THE CONTRACT

Subject to section 2(1)(f) of the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act, 2000, the bidder obtaining the highest total number of points will ordinarily be recommended for award, unless objective criteria justify an award to another bidder.

17.4 OBJECTIVE CRITERIA

The Authority reserves the right, in terms of section 2(1)(f) of the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act, 2000, to recommend the award of the contract to a bidder other than the bidder scoring the highest total points where objective criteria justify such recommendation.

18. EQUAL SCORES

- Where two or more bidders score an equal total number of points, the bidder scoring the highest number of points for Specific Goals shall be ranked higher.
- Should two or more bids remain equal in all respects thereafter, the successful bidder shall be determined by the drawing of lots, conducted in a fair, transparent and auditable manner.

19. PAYMENT TERMS

In accordance with Treasury Regulation 8.2.3 issued under the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999), and unless otherwise provided for in the contract or where a dispute exists regarding the amount claimed, the Authority shall make payment within thirty (30) days of receipt of a valid tax invoice and all supporting documentation, subject to the satisfactory delivery and acceptance of the goods or services, in accordance with the General Conditions of Contract (GCC).

20. TAX STATUS

Bidders must ensure their tax status is compliant on the Central Supplier Database (CSD) and bidders registered on CSD do not need to submit to submit a Tax Compliance Certificate (TCC) to WCLA but are encouraged to verify their tax clearance status prior to their submission of the bid proposal and the remainder period until the award is made. The Authority reserves the right to verify the bidder's tax compliance status through the CSD or other valid and applicable sources.

21. CONTRACT PERIOD

The contract shall commence on the date of appointment and shall remain valid for the period specified in this RPFP, subject to budget availability, satisfactory performance, and the continued operational requirements of the Authority.

22. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, all reports, documents, data, information and intellectual property developed specifically for the Authority under this contract shall become the property of the Authority upon payment for the services rendered.

23. WORKMEN AND SUPERVISION ON-SITE

The successful bidder shall be responsible for the conduct, supervision and performance of its employees and those of any approved subcontractor throughout the duration of the contract.

By submitting a bid, the bidder warrants that all goods supplied and services rendered under the contract shall be performed in a proper and workmanlike manner and shall remain responsible for rectifying any defects attributable to its workmanship in accordance with the contract or GCC, otherwise, all the rendered services/work is subject to a workmanship guarantee of at least 12-months.

In addition, the successful bidder warrants that the services will be performed with due skill, care and diligence, in accordance with recognised industry standards, the Terms of Reference and the General Conditions of Contract

24. CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS

This RFP, together with the successful bidder's proposal, pricing schedule, WCBD 7.1 Contract Form, the General Conditions of Contract (GCC), and any applicable Service Level Agreement (SLA) or Special Conditions of Contract (SCC), shall constitute the contractual documents governing the contract. Unless otherwise provided for in the Special Conditions of Contract, all prices shall remain fixed for the duration of the contract.

25. BRANDING

Where this RFP refers to a specific brand, trademark, trade name, patent, design, type, origin or manufacturer, such reference shall be deemed to include the words "or equivalent", unless expressly stated otherwise in writing by the Authority to service providers.

26. BID VALIDITY

Any RFP submitted will remain valid, irrevocable, and open for written acceptance by WCLA for a period of 120 days. The RFP will be deemed valid beyond the 120-day period until formal acceptance by WCLA, unless the bidder notifies WCLA in writing of any changes, including additional conditions. Any further conditions introduced by the bidder will be considered at WCLA's sole discretion.

27. COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any complaints and dispute Resolution arising from this procurement process shall be dealt with in accordance with the Authority's Supply Chain Management Policy and applicable procurement legislation. In addition, the appeal period will be open for 14- calendar days following the notification of unsuccessful outcome by the Authority.

28. COMMUNICATION

Any request for clarification regarding this RFP shall be submitted in writing to scm@wcla.gov.za, quoting the relevant RFP number. Where appropriate, clarifications or amendments issued by the Authority shall be communicated in writing to all prospective bidders.

All official communication between the Authority and bidders shall be conducted through the Supply Chain Management Unit. The Authority may, where necessary, contact bidders telephonically for administrative purposes; however, any instruction, clarification or request affecting the procurement process shall be confirmed in writing through the scm@wcla.gov.za email.

During the evaluation process, the Authority may request written clarification or additional information from bidders. Such clarification shall not alter the substance of the bid or result in an unfair competitive advantage. Failure to respond within the prescribed period may result in the bid being declared non-responsive.

29. VALUE ADDED TAX (VAT)

Service providers who are VAT-registered must include VAT at the prevailing rate prescribed by the Value-Added Tax Act in their quoted prices/bid proposal. Additionally, VAT must be included in the breakdown pricing within the tender/bid proposal documents.

30. CENTRAL SUPPLIER DATABASE

All bidders wishing to do business with WCLA must register on the Government's Central Supplier Database (CSD) at www.CSD.gov.za, and to include in their submission their CSD Master Registration Number. The recommended bidder(s) must be registered on the CSD prior to an award letter / purchase order / signed contract being issued.

Foreign suppliers with neither South African tax obligations nor history of doing business in South Africa must complete the questionnaire on the Standard Bidding Document (SBD) 1.

31. WESTERN CAPE SUPPLIER DATABASE REGISTRATION

Bidders must be actively registered on the Central Supplier Database (CSD).

The Authority may request bidders to register on the Western Cape Supplier Evidence Bank (WCSEB) where applicable. Bidders registered on the WCSEB are responsible for ensuring that their registration remains active and that all information and supporting documentation maintained on the WCSEB are current, complete and valid throughout the procurement process.

32. ADMINISTRATION

Successful suppliers or service providers must inform the SCM officials immediately upon becoming aware of the circumstances, or as soon as unforeseen circumstances arise that may affect the execution of the awarded contract. The full details of such circumstances, including the delay period, must be provided. The administration and facilitation of the award will be managed by WCLA's Supply Chain Management Unit, and all correspondence should be directed to scm@wcla.gov.za. Orders will be placed by the WCLA unit, which will be responsible for payment to suppliers/service providers for goods delivered and/or services rendered.

33. TRUSTS, JOINT VENTURES, SUBCONTRACTING AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

33.1 PROOF OF EXISTENCE OF A TRUST, JOINT VENTURE, CONSORTIUM AND SUBCONTRACTING ARRANGEMENTS:

Where a bidder submits a proposal as a joint venture or consortium (whether incorporated or unincorporated), the bidder shall submit a duly executed Joint Venture or Consortium Agreement setting out, at a minimum, the following:

- Full details of the trustees of the trust;
- Full details of the beneficiaries of the trust; and
- Where a beneficiary is itself a trust, the Trust Deed of that trust or other satisfactory documentary proof of its existence

33.1.1 JOINT VENTURES AND CONSORTIUMS

Where, for the purposes of this RFP, a bidder submits its proposal as a joint venture or consortium (incorporated or unincorporated), the bidder must submit the joint venture /consortium agreement, which sets forth the following details:

- the full legal identification of each participating party;
- the ownership or participation interest of each party, where applicable;
- the precise roles, responsibilities and scope of work to be undertaken by each party;
- the anticipated percentage or value of the contract revenue to be received by each party;
- the appointment and identification of the Lead Partner authorised to represent, bind and act on behalf of the joint venture or consortium in all dealings with the WCLA;
- confirmation that the parties shall be jointly and severally liable to the WCLA for the due performance of all contractual obligations arising from the contract; and
- the authority granted to the Lead Partner to execute documents, receive instructions and act on behalf of all participating parties.

Where the joint venture or consortium is unincorporated

- each participating party shall complete and submit its own WCBD 4.1 (Declaration of Interest) or any other prescribed declaration required by the Authority;
- each participating party shall be actively registered on the Central Supplier Database (CSD); and
- each participating party shall comply with all applicable statutory and procurement requirements.

33.1.2 SUBCONTRACTING ARRANGEMENTS

Where a bidder has entered into, or intends to enter into, a subcontracting arrangement in respect of any portion of the goods or services required under this RFP, the bidder shall disclose such arrangement in its bid submission.

The bidder shall submit the subcontracting agreement where such agreement has already been concluded. Where the agreement has not yet been concluded, the bidder shall provide sufficient details of the proposed subcontracting arrangement

The bidder shall, at a minimum, disclose:

- the name and legal status of each proposed subcontractor;
- the scope of work to be performed by each subcontractor;
- the estimated percentage or value of the contract to be subcontracted;
- where applicable, the B-BBEE Status Level of Contribution of each subcontractor and whether the subcontractor qualifies as an Exempted Micro Enterprise (EME) or Qualifying Small Enterprise (QSE); and
- any other information reasonably required by the WCLA to evaluate the proposed subcontracting arrangement.

The successful bidder shall not subcontract, assign, cede, transfer or otherwise dispose of any material portion of the contract without the prior written approval of the WCLA, except where the subcontracting arrangement was fully disclosed in the bid submission and expressly accepted by the WCLA at the time of contract award.

Approval by the WCLA of any subcontracting arrangement shall not:

- create any contractual relationship between the WCLA and the subcontractor;
- relieve the successful bidder of any contractual obligation owed to the WCLA; or
- limit the WCLA's contractual rights against the successful bidder.

The successful bidder shall remain solely responsible and fully accountable to the WCLA for:

- the proper performance of the contract;
- the acts, omissions, negligence and defaults of its subcontractors;
- ensuring that subcontracted services comply with the requirements of this RFP, the Contract, any applicable Service Level Agreement (SLA), Special Conditions of Contract (SCC), and all applicable legislation.

The WCLA reserves the right, at any stage during the procurement process or contract period, to:

- verify the identity, legal status and capability of any proposed or appointed subcontractor;
- request copies of subcontracting agreements and any amendments thereto;
- request additional information relating to the subcontracted scope of work;
- monitor and evaluate subcontractor participation and performance;
- require periodic reporting on subcontracting activities;
- conduct inspections, due diligence investigations or audits relating to subcontracted work;
- require the successful bidder to take appropriate corrective measures where the performance of a subcontractor adversely affects the delivery of the contract; and
- reject or require the replacement of any subcontractor where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the subcontractor is unable to perform the allocated work, has submitted false or misleading information, has been restricted from doing business with an organ of state, or presents a material legal, financial, operational, governance or reputational risk to the WCLA.

The successful bidder shall ensure that every approved subcontractor complies with all applicable legislation, confidentiality obligations, data protection requirements, health and safety requirements, security requirements and any policies, standards or procedures applicable to the performance of the contract.

Any proposed replacement, substitution or addition of a subcontractor after contract award shall be subject to the prior written approval of the WCLA.

The successful bidder shall immediately notify the WCLA in writing of any material change affecting an approved subcontractor, including but not limited to liquidation, business rescue, deregistration, insolvency, suspension of business operations, loss of required accreditation, or any circumstance that may materially affect the subcontractor's ability to perform its allocated obligations.

Nothing contained in this clause shall be interpreted as limiting the WCLA's rights under the contract or applicable legislation, or as preventing the WCLA from enforcing any contractual remedy available against the successful bidder in respect of the acts or omissions of its subcontractors

34. TENDER DEFAULTERS AND RESTRICTED SUPPLIERS

No bid will be awarded to a bidder whose name (or any of its members, directors, partners or trustees) appears on the National Treasury's Register for Tender Defaulters or the National Treasury's Database of Restricted Suppliers

35. GOVERNING LAW

This RFP and any resultant agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

3. Definitions

"bid" means a bidder's response to an institution's invitation to participate in a procurement process which may include a bid, price quotation or proposal;

"Bid rigging (or collusive bidding)" occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and/or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors;

"business interest" means -

a. a right or entitlement to share in profits, revenue or assets of anentity;

b. a real or personal right in property;

c. a right to remuneration or any other private gain or benefit, or

d. includes any interest contemplated in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) acquired through an intermediary and any potential interest in terms of any of theseparagraphs;

"Consortium or Joint Venture" means an association of persons for the purpose of combining their expertise, property, capital, efforts, skill and knowledge in an activity for the execution of a contract;

"Corruption"- General offences of corruption are defined in the Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, 2004 (Act No 12 of 2004) as:

Any person who directly or indirectly-

a) accepts or agrees or offers to accept an!' gratification from any other person, whether for the benefit of himself or herself or for the benefit of another person; or

b) gives or agrees or offers to give to any other person any gratification, whether for the benefit of that other person or for the benefit of another person., to act personally or by influencing another person so to act, in a manner—

I. that amounts to the-

(aa) illegal. dishonest. unauthorized. incomplete. or biased: or

(bb) misuse or selling of information or material acquired during the exercise, carrying out or performance of any powers, duties or functions arising out of a constitutional, statutory, contractual or any other legal obligation:

II. that amounts to-

(aa) the abuse of a position of authority;

(bb) a breach of trust; or

(cc) the violation of a legal duty or a set of rules;

III. designed to achieve an unjustified result; or

IV. that amounts to any other unauthorized or improper inducement to do or 45 not to do anything. of the, is guilty of the offence of corruption

"CSD" means the Central Supplier Database maintained by National Treasury;

"employee", in relation to –

a) a department, means a person contemplated in section 8 of the Public Service Act, 1994 but excludes a person appointed in terms of section 12A of that Act; and

b) a public entity, means a person employed by the public entity; entity' means any -

a) association of persons, whether incorporated or registered in terms of any law, including a company, corporation, trust, partnership, close corporation, joint venture or consortium; or

b) sole proprietorship;

''entity conducting business with the Institution' means an entity that contracts or applies or tenders for the sale, lease or supply of goods or services to the province;

"Family member" means a person -

a) spouse; or

b) child, parent, brother, sister, whether such a relationship results from birth, marriage or adoption or some other legal arrangement (as the case may be);

intermediary' means a person through whom an interest is acquired, and includes a representative or agent or any other person who has been granted authority to act on behalf of another person;

"Institution" means – a provincial department or provincial public entity listed in Schedule 3C of the Act;

"Provincial Government Western Cape (PGWC)" means

a) the Institution of the Western Cape, and

b) a provincial public entity;

"RWOEE" means -

4. Regulation 13(c) of the Public Service Regulations (PSR) 2016, effective 1 February 2017, prohibits any employee from conducting business with an organ of state, or holding a directorship in a public or private company doing business with an organ of state unless the employee is a director (in an official capacity) of a company listed in schedules 2 and 3 of the Public Finance Management Act.

a) Therefore, by 31 January 2017 all employees who are conducting business with an organ of state should either have:

I. resigned as an employee of the government institution or;

II. cease conducting business with an organ of state or;

III. resign as a director/shareholder/owner/member of an entity that conducts business with an organ of state. Any legal person, or their family members, may make an offer or offers in terms of this invitation to bid. In view of potential conflict of interest, in the event that the resulting bid, or part thereof, be awarded to family members of persons employed by an organ of state, it is required that the bidder or his/her authorised representative declare his/her position in relation to the evaluating/adjudicating authority where the bidder is employed by the Institution

5. The bid of any bidder may be disregarded if that bidder or any of its directors abused the institution's supply chain management system; committed fraud or any other improper conduct in relation to such system; or failed to perform on any previous contract.

6. Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging). Collusive bidding is a per se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.

7. Treasury Regulation 16A9 prescribes that accounting officers and accounting authorities must take all reasonable steps to prevent abuse of the supply chain management system and authorises accounting officers and accounting authorities to:

a) disregard the bid of any bidder if that bidder, or any of its directors have abused the institution's supply chain management system and or committed fraud or any other improper conduct in relation to such system.

b) cancel a contract awarded to a supplier of goods and services if the supplier committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of that contract.

8. Communication between partners in a joint venture or consortium will not be construed as collusive bidding.

9. In addition and without prejudice to any other remedy provided to combat any restrictive practices related to bids and contracts, bids that are suspicious will be reported to the Competition Commission for investigation and possible imposition of administrative penalties in terms of section 59 of the Competition Act No 89 of 1998 and or may be reported to the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) for criminal investigation and or may be restricted from conducting business with the public sector for a period not exceeding ten (10) years in terms of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act No 12 of 2004 or any other applicable legislation.

2.5 Failure on the part of a bidder to fill in, sign this form and submit in the circumstances prescribed in the Codes of Good Practice either a B-BBEE Verification Certificate issued by a Verification Agency accredited by the South African Accreditation System (SANAS) or an affidavit confirming annual total revenue and level of black ownership together with the bid or an affidavit issued by Companies Intellectual Property Commission, will be interpreted to mean that preference points for B-BBEE status level of contribution are not claimed.

2.6 The organ of state reserves the right to require of a bidder, either before a bid is adjudicated or at any time subsequently, to substantiate any claim on preferences, in any manner required by the organ of state.

3. ADJUDICATION USING A POINT SYSTEM

3.1 Subject to Section 2 (1) (f) of the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act, 2000, the bidder obtaining the highest number of total points will be awarded the contract.

3.2 A tenderer must submit proof of its B-BBEE status level of contributor to claim points for B-BBEE.

3.3 A tenderer failing to submit proof of B-BBEE status level of contributor or is a non-compliant contributor to B-BBEE will not be disqualified but will only score:

a) points out of 80 for price; and

b) 0 points out of 20 for B-BBEE

3.4 Points scored must be rounded off to the nearest 2 decimal places.

3.5 If two or more bids have scored equal total points, the successful bid must be the one scoring the highest number of preference points for B-BBEE.

3.6 As per section 2 (1) (f) of the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act, 2000, the contract may be awarded to a bidder other than the one scoring the highest number of total points based on objective criteria in addition to those contemplated in paragraph (d) and (e) of the Act that justifies the award to another tenderer provided that it has been stipulated upfront in the tendering conditions.

3.7 Should two or more bids be equal in all respects; the award shall be decided by the drawing of lots.

4. FORMULAE FOR PROCUREMENT OF GOODS AND SERVICES

General Conditions of Contract

1. Definitions

The following terms shall be interpreted as indicated:

1.1 "Closing time" means the date and hour specified in the bidding documents for the receipt of bids.

1.2 "Contract" means the written agreement entered between the purchaser and the supplier, as recorded in the contract form signed by the parties, including all attachments and appendices thereto and all documents incorporated by reference therein.

1.3 "Contract price" means the price payable to the supplier under the contract for the full and proper performance of his contractual obligations.

1.4 "Corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution.

1.5 "Countervailing duties" are imposed in cases where an enterprise abroad is subsidized by its government and encouraged to market its products internationally.

1.6 "Country of origin" means the place where the goods were mined, grown or produced or from which the services are supplied. Goods are produced when, through manufacturing, processing or substantial and major assembly of components, a commercially recognized new product results that is substantially different in basic characteristics or in purpose or utility from its components.

1.7 "Day" means calendar day.

1.8 "Delivery" means delivery in compliance of the conditions of the contract or order.

1.9 "Delivery ex stock" means immediate delivery directly from stock on hand.

1.10 "Delivery into consignee store or to his site" means delivered and unloaded in the specified store or depot or on the specified site in compliance with the conditions of the contract or order, the supplier bearing all risks and charges involved until the supplies are so delivered and a valid receipt is obtained.

1.11 "Dumping" occurs when a private enterprise abroad market its goods on own initiative in the RSA at lower prices than that of the country of origin and which have the potential to harm the local industries in the RSA.

1.12 " Force majeure" means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the supplier's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but is not restricted to, acts of the purchaser in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.

1.13 "Fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of any bidder and includes collusive practice among bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the bidder of the benefits of free and open competition.

1.14 "GCC" means the General Conditions of Contract.

1.15 "Goods" means all the equipment, machinery, and/or other materials that the supplier is required to supply to the purchaser under the contract.

1.16 "Imported content" means that portion of the bidding price represented by the cost of components, parts or materials which have been or are still to be imported (whether by the supplier or his subcontractors) and which costs are inclusive of the costs abroad, plus freight and other direct importation costs such as landing costs, dock dues, import duty, sales duty or other similar tax or duty at the South African place of entry as well as transportation and handling charges to the factory in the Republic where the supplies covered by the bid will be manufactured.

1.17 "Local content" means that portion of the bidding price which is not included in the imported content provided that local manufacture does take place.

1.18 "Manufacture" means the production of products in a factory using labour, materials, components and machinery and includes other related value-adding activities.

1.19 "Order" means an official written order issued for the supply of goods or works or the rendering of a service.

1.20 "Project site," where applicable, means the place indicated in bidding documents.

1.21 "Purchaser" means the organization purchasing the goods.

1.22 "Republic" means the Republic of South Africa.

1.23 "SCC" means the Special Conditions of Contract.

1.24 "Services" means those functional services ancillaries to the supply of the goods, such as transportation and any other incidental services, such as installation, commissioning, provision of technical assistance, training, catering, gardening, security, maintenance and other such obligations of the supplier covered under the contract.

1.25 "Written" or "in writing" means handwritten in ink or any form of electronic or mechanical writing.

2. Application

2.1 These general conditions are applicable to all bids, contracts and orders including bids for functional and professional services, sales, hiring, letting and the granting or acquiring of rights, but excluding immovable property, unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents.

2.2 Where applicable, special conditions of contract are also laid down to cover specific supplies, services or works.

2.3 Where such special conditions of contract conflict with these general conditions, the special conditions shall apply.

3. General

3.1 Unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents, the purchaser shall not be liable for any expense incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid. Where applicable a non-refundable fee for documents may be charged.

3.2 With certain exceptions, invitations to bid are only published in the Government Tender Bulletin. The Government Tender Bulletin may be obtained directly from the Government Printer, Private Bag X85, Pretoria 0001, or accessed electronically from www.treasury.gov.za

4. Standards

4.1 The goods supplied shall conform to the standards mentioned in the bidding documents and specifications.

5. Use of contract documents and information; inspection.

5.1 The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, disclose the contract, or any provision thereof, or any specification, plan, drawing, pattern, sample, or information furnished by or on behalf of the purchaser in connection therewith, to any person other than a person employed by the supplier in the performance of the contract. Disclosure to any such employed person shall be made in confidence and shall extend only so far as may be necessary for purposes of such performance.

5.2 The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, make use of any document or information mentioned in GCC clause 5.1 except for purposes of performing the contract.

5.3 Any document, other than the contract itself mentioned in GCC clause 5.1 shall remain the property of the purchaser and shall be returned (all copies) to the purchaser on completion of the supplier's performance under the contract if so, required by the purchaser.

5.4 The supplier shall permit the purchaser to inspect the supplier's records relating to the performance of the supplier and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the purchaser, if so, required by the purchaser.

6. Patent rights

6.1 The supplier shall indemnify the purchaser against all third-party claims of infringement of patent, trademark, or industrial design rights arising from use of the goods or any part thereof by the purchaser.

7. Performance security

7.1 Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notification of contract award, the successful bidder shall furnish to the purchaser the performance security of the amount specified in SCC.

7.2 The proceeds of the performance security shall be payable to the purchaser as compensation for any loss resulting from the supplier's failure to complete his obligations under the contract.

7.3 The performance security shall be denominated in the currency of the contract, or in a freely convertible currency acceptable to the purchaser and shall be in one of the following forms:

a) a bank guarantee or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a reputable bank located in the purchaser's country or abroad, acceptable to the purchaser, in the form provided in the bidding documents or another form acceptable to the purchaser; or

b) a cashier's or certified cheque

7.4 The performance security will be discharged by the purchaser and returned to the supplier not later than thirty (30) days following the date of completion of the supplier's performance obligations under the contract, including any warranty obligations, unless otherwise specified in SCC.

8. 8. Inspections, tests and analyses

8.1 All pre-bidding testing will be for the account of the bidder.

8.2 If it is a bid condition that supplies to be produced or services to be rendered should at any stage during production or execution or on completion be subject to inspection, the premises of the bidder or contractor shall be open, at all reasonable hours, for inspection by a representative of the Department or an organization acting on behalf of the Department.

8.3 If there are no inspection requirements indicated in the bidding documents and no mention is made in the contract, but during the contract period it is decided that inspections shall be carried out, the purchaser shall itself make the necessary arrangements, including payment arrangements with the testing authority concerned.

8.4 If the inspections, tests and analyses referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 show the supplies to be in accordance with the contract requirements, the cost of the inspections, tests and analyses shall be defrayed by the purchaser.

8.5 Where the supplies or services referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 do not comply with the contract requirements, irrespective of whether such supplies or services are accepted or not, the cost in connection with these inspections, tests or analyses shall be defrayed by the supplier.

8.6 Supplies and services which are referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 and which do not comply with the contract requirements may be rejected.

8.7 Any contract supplies may on or after delivery be inspected, tested or analysed and may be rejected if found not to comply with the requirements of the contract. Such rejected supplies shall be held at the cost and risk of the supplier who shall, when called upon, remove them immediately at his own cost and forthwith substitute them with supplies which do comply with the requirements of the contract. Failing such removal, the rejected supplies shall be returned at the supplier's cost and risk. Should the supplier fail to provide the substitute supplies forthwith, the purchaser may, without giving the supplier further opportunity to substitute the rejected supplies, purchase such supplies as may be necessary at the expense of the supplier.

8.8 The provisions of clauses 8.4 to 8.7 shall not prejudice the right of the purchaser to cancel the contract on account of a breach of the conditions thereof, or to act in terms of Clause 23 of GCC.

9. Packing

9.1 The supplier shall provide such packing of the goods as is required to prevent their damage or deterioration during transit to their destination, as indicated in the contract. The packing shall be sufficient to withstand, without limitation, rough handling during transit and exposure to extreme temperatures, salt and precipitation during transit, and open storage. Packing, case size and weights shall take into consideration, where appropriate, the remoteness of the goods' destination and the absence of heavy handling facilities at all points in transit.

9.2 The packing, marking, and documentation within and outside the packages shall comply strictly with such special requirements as shall be expressly provided for in the contract, including additional requirements, if any, specified in SCC, and in any subsequent instructions ordered by the purchaser.

10. Delivery and documents

10.1 Delivery of the goods shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the terms specified in the contract. The details of shipping and/or other documents to be furnished by the supplier are specified in SCC.

10.2 Documents to be submitted by the supplier are specified in SCC.

11. Insurance

11.1 The goods supplied under the contract shall be fully insured in a freely convertible currency against loss or damage incidental to manufacture or acquisition, transportation, storage and delivery in the manner specified in the SCC.

12. Transportation

12.1 Should a price other than an all-inclusive delivered price be required, this shall be specified in the SCC.

13. Incidental services

13.1 The supplier may be required to provide any or all the following services, including additional services, if any, specified in SCC:

a) performance or supervision of on-site assembly and/or commissioning of the supplied goods;

b) furnishing of tools required for assembly and/or maintenance of the supplied goods;

c) (c) furnishing of a detailed operations and maintenance manual for each appropriate unit of the supplied goods;

d) (d) performance or supervision or maintenance and/or repair of the supplied goods, for a period agreed by the parties, provided that this service shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under this contract; and

e) (e) training of the purchaser's personnel, at the supplier's plant and/or on-site, in assembly, start-up, operation, maintenance, and/or repair of the supplied goods.

13.2 Prices charged by the supplier for incidental services, if not included in the contract price for the goods, shall be agreed upon in advance by the parties and shall not exceed the prevailing rates charged to other parties by the supplier for similar services.

14. Spare parts

14.1 As specified in SCC, the supplier may be required to provide any or all the following materials, notifications, and information pertaining to spare parts manufactured or distributed by the supplier:

a) such spare parts as the purchaser may elect to purchase from the supplier provided that this election shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under the contract; and

b) in the event of termination of production of the spare parts:

I. Advance notification to the purchaser of the pending termination, in sufficient time to permit the purchaser to procure needed requirements; and

II. following such termination, furnishing at no cost to the purchaser, the blueprints, drawings, and specifications of the spare parts, if requested.

15. Warranty

15.1 The supplier warrants that the goods supplied under the contract are new, unused, of the most recent or current models, and that they incorporate all recent improvements in design and materials unless provided otherwise in the contract. The supplier further warrants that all goods supplied under this contract shall have no defect, arising from design, materials, or workmanship (except when the design and/or material is required by the purchaser's specifications) or from any act or omission of the supplier, that may develop under normal use of the supplied goods in the conditions prevailing in the country of final destination.

15.2 This warranty shall remain valid for twelve (12) months after the goods, or any portion thereof as the case may be, have been delivered to and accepted at the final destination indicated in the contract, or for eighteen (18) months after the date of shipment from the port or place of loading in the source country, whichever period concludes earlier, unless specified otherwise in SCC.

15.3 The purchaser shall promptly notify the supplier in writing of any claims arising under this warranty.

15.4 Upon receipt of such notice, the supplier shall, within the period specified in SCC and with all reasonable speed, repair or replace the defective goods or parts thereof, without costs to the purchaser.

15.5 If the supplier, having been notified, fails to remedy the defect(s) within the period specified in SCC, the purchaser may proceed to take such remedial action as may be necessary, at the supplier's risk and expense and without prejudice to any other rights which the purchaser may have against the supplier under the contract.

16. Payment

16.1 The method and conditions of payment to be made to the supplier under this contract shall be specified in SCC.

16.2 The supplier shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice accompanied by a copy of the delivery note and upon fulfilment of other obligations stipulated in the contract.

16.3 Payments shall be made promptly by the purchaser, but in no case later than thirty (30) days after submission of an invoice or claim by the supplier.

16.4 Payment will be made in Rand unless otherwise stipulated in SCC.

17. Prices

17.1 Prices charged by the supplier for goods delivered and services performed under the contract shall not vary from the prices quoted by the supplier in his bid, except for any price adjustments authorized in SCC or in the purchaser's request for bid validity extension, as the case may be.

18. Contract amendments

18.1 No variation in or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by a written amendment signed by the parties concerned.

19. Assignment

19.1 The supplier shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the purchaser's prior written consent

20. Subcontracts

20.1 The supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contract if not already specified in the bid. Such notification, in the original bid or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract.

21. Delays in the supplier's performance

21.1 Delivery of the goods and performance of services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule prescribed by the purchaser in the contract.

21.2 If at any time during performance of the contract, the supplier or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the goods and performance of services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the supplier's notice, the purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may at his discretion extend the supplier's time for performance, with or without the imposition of penalties, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of contract.

21.3 No provision in a contract shall be deemed to prohibit the obtaining of supplies or services from a national department, provincial department, or a local authority.

21.4 The right is reserved to procure outside of the contract small quantities or to have minor essential services executed if an emergency arises, the supplier's point of supply is not situated at or near the place where the supplies are required, or the supplier's services are not readily available.

21.5 Except as provided under GCC Clause 25, a delay by the supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to the imposition of penalties, pursuant to GCC Clause 22, unless an extension of time is agreed upon pursuant to GCC Clause 21.2 without the application of penalties.

21.6 Upon any delay beyond the delivery period in the case of a supplies contract, the purchaser shall, without cancelling the contract, be entitled to purchase supplies of a similar quality and up to the same quantity in substitution of the goods not supplied in conformity with the contract and to return any goods delivered later at the supplier's expense and risk, or to cancel the contract and buy such goods as may be required to complete the contract and without prejudice to his other rights, be entitled to claim damages from the supplier.

22. Penalties

22.1 Subject to GCC Clause 25, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or to perform the services within the period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as a penalty, a sum calculated on the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services using the current prime interest rate calculated for each day of the delay until actual delivery or performance. The purchaser may also consider termination of the contract pursuant to GCC Clause 23.

23. Termination for default

23.1 The purchaser, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, may terminate this contract in whole or in part:

a) if the supplier fails to deliver any or all the goods within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC Clause 21.2;

b) if the Supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract; or

c) if the supplier, in the judgment of the purchaser, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract.

23.2 In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods, works or services similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess costs for such similar goods, works or services. However, the supplier shall continue the performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

23.3 Where the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may decide to impose a restriction penalty on the supplier by prohibiting such supplier from doing business with the public sector for a period not exceeding 10 years.

23.4 If a purchaser intends imposing a restriction on a supplier or any person associated with the supplier, the supplier will be allowed a period of not more than fourteen (14) days to provide reasons why the envisaged restriction should not be imposed. Should the supplier fail to respond within the stipulated fourteen (14) days the purchaser may regard the intended penalty as not objected against and may impose it on the supplier.

23.5 Any restriction imposed on any person by the Accounting Officer / Authority will, at the discretion of the Accounting Officer / Authority, also be applicable to any other enterprise or any partner, manager, director or other person who wholly or partly exercises or exercised or may exercise control over the enterprise of the first-mentioned person, and with which enterprise or person the first-mentioned person, is or was in the opinion of the Accounting Officer / Authority actively associated.

23.6 If a restriction is imposed, the purchaser must, within five (5) working days of such imposition, furnish the National Treasury, with the following information:

I. the name and address of the supplier and / or person restricted by the purchaser;

II. the date of commencement of the restriction

III. the period of restriction; and

IV. the reasons for the restriction.

These details will be loaded in the National Treasury's central database of suppliers or persons prohibited from doing business with the public sector.

23.7 If a court of law convicts a person of an offence as contemplated in sections 12 or 13 of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, No. 12 of 2004, the court may also rule that such person's name be endorsed on the Register for Tender Defaulters. When a person's name has been endorsed on the Register, the person will be prohibited from doing business with the public sector for a period not less than five years and not more than 10 years. The National Treasury is empowered to determine the period of restriction, and each case will be dealt with on its own merits. According to section 32 of the Act the Register must be open to the public. The Register can be perused on the National Treasury website.

24. Anti- dumping and countervailing duties and rights

24.1 When, after the date of bid, provisional payments are required, or anti-dumping or countervailing duties are imposed, or the amount of a provisional payment or anti-dumping or countervailing right is increased in respect of any dumped or subsidized import, the State is not liable for any amount so required or imposed, or for the amount of any such increase. When, after the said date, such a provisional payment is no longer required or any such anti-dumping or countervailing right is abolished, or where the amount of such provisional payment or any such right is reduced, any such favourable difference shall on demand be paid forthwith by the contractor to the State or the State may deduct such amounts from moneys (if any) which may otherwise be due to the contractor in regard to supplies or services which he delivered or rendered, or is to deliver or render in terms of the contract or any other contract or any other amount which may be due to him

25. Force Majeure

25.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC Clauses 22 and 23, the supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that his delay in performance or other failure to perform his obligations under the contract is the result of an event of force majeure.

25.2 If a force majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event.

26. Termination for insolvency

26.1 The purchaser may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier if the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

27. Settlement of Disputes

27.1 If any dispute or difference of any kind whatsoever arises between the purchaser and the supplier in connection with or arising out of the contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve amicably such dispute or difference by mutual consultation.

27.2 If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of his intention to commence with mediation. No mediation in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given to the other party.

27.3 Should it not be possible to settle a dispute by means of mediation, it may be settled in a South African court of law.

27.4 Mediation proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure specified in the SCC.

27.5 Notwithstanding any reference to mediation and/or court proceedings herein,

a) the parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the contract unless they otherwise agree; and

b) the purchaser shall pay the supplier any monies due the supplier.

28. Limitation of liability

28.1 Except in cases of criminal negligence or wilful misconduct, and in the case of infringement pursuant to Clause 6;

a) the supplier shall not be liable to the purchaser, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the supplier to pay penalties and/or damages to the purchaser; and

b) the aggregate liability of the supplier to the purchaser, whether under the contract, in tort or otherwise, shall not exceed the total contract price, provided that this limitation shall not apply to the cost of repairing or replacing defective equipment.

29. Governing language

29.1 The contract shall be written in English. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract that is exchanged by the parties shall also be written in English.

30. Applicable Law

30.1 The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with South African laws, unless otherwise specified in SCC.

31. Notices

31.1 Every written acceptance of a bid shall be posted to the supplier concerned by registered or certified mail and any other notice to him shall be posted by ordinary mail to the address furnished in his bid or to the address notified later by him in writing and such posting shall be deemed to be proper service of such notice

The time mentioned in the contract documents for performing any act after such aforesaid notice has been given, shall be reckoned from the date of posting of such notice.

32. Taxes and duties

32.1 A foreign supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties, license fees, and other such levies imposed outside the purchaser's country.

32.2 A local supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, etc., incurred until delivery of the contracted goods to the purchaser.

32.3 No contract shall be concluded with any bidder whose tax matters are not in order. Prior to the award of a bid the Department must be in possession of a tax clearance certificate, submitted by the bidder. This certificate must be an original issued by the South African Revenue Services.

33. National Industrial Participation (NIP) Programme

33.1 The NIP Programme administered by the Department of Trade and Industry shall be applicable to all contracts that are subject to the NIP obligation.

34. Prohibition of Restrictive Practices

34.1 In terms of section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, is prohibited if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if a bidder (s) is / are or a contractor(s) was / were involved in collusive bidding (or bid rigging).

34.2 If a bidder(s) or contractor(s), based on reasonable grounds or evidence obtained by the purchaser, has/have engaged in the restrictive practice referred to above, the purchaser may refer the matter to the Competition Commission for investigation and possible imposition of administrative penalties as contemplated in the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998.

34.3 If a bidder(s) or contractor(s), has/have been found guilty by the Competition Commission of the restrictive practice referred to above, the purchaser may, in addition, and without prejudice to any other remedy provided for, invalidate the bid(s) for such item(s) offered, and/or terminate the contract in whole or part, and/or restrict the bidder(s) or contractor(s) from conducting business with the public sector for a period not exceeding ten (10) years and/or claim damages from the bidder(s) or contractor(s) concerned.
